POINTS OF ORDER

A bill appears erroneously on third-reading calendar, that went over in order from second-reading calendar, without being read the second time, by Kephart, 430.

A bill cannot be recommitted, when copies of the same are not on the Senators' desks, by Shapiro, 3149. Withdrawn, 3149.

A bill may not be acted upon and vote taken, when it is not on file on the deak of each member, by Cohen, 1980.

A Member cannot be excluded from the House, by W. E. Rose, 1764.

A Member of the Senate cannot be present and not vote, unless he has an interest in the bill under consideration, by Heyburn, 2870.

A motion to adjourn is always in order, by Dent, 4032.

A motion to lay on the table always takes precedence, therefore there is no need of an amendmnt to accomplish this objctive, by Shapiro, 1429.

A motion to lay on the table is not debatable, by Walker, 2661.

A roll call is always in order, by Haluska, 1861.

A Senator voting "No" on passage of a bill on second reading did not vote with the majority and is not in position to move for reconsideration of the second-reading vote, by Heyburn, 274.

A Senator voting "Present", votes neither for or against, and therefore really does not vote, by Haluska, 2243, 2244.

According to the rules, an appeal from a decision of the Chair must be in writing, and since there was no appeal in writing before the Senate, there is no appeal, and there is no necessity for withdrawing it, by Shapiro, 1767.

Amendments to a bill should be read before being debated, by Fleming, 288.

POINTS OF ORDER—Continued.

Answers to interrogations should apply specifically thereto, by Levy, 375.

Argument on a bill should take place on third reading, by Levy, 476.

As there is nothing before the Senate, the gentlemen making addresses are out of order, by Shapiro, 1769.

Bills are being read too loudly; the Members can hear, by Bretherick, 1963.

Business cannot proceed in the Senate, unless the Senators remain at their desks, by Heyburn, 1875.

House Bill No. 133 repealing Act, 1929, authorizing judges of certain courts in counties of third class to employ certain personnel to facilitate business of the courts, should be dropped from the calendar, as the subject matter of this bill is covered in Senate Bill No. 80, which was twice defeated under decisions of the Senate, and such a bill may not be acted upon by the Senate again, by Shapiro, 3576.

House Bill No. 170, amending "Administrative Code", 1929, changing name of the Pennsylvania Motor Police to the Pennsylvania State Police, is not on the Senators' desks, by Barr, 1867.

House is discussig the motion to recommit a bill, and not the bill, by Moser, 1179.

House Rule No. 96 is violated by House Bill No. 403 concerning the Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical Association, by Levy, 1036.

Inasmuch as there is no W.P.A. legislation before the Senate, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Holland is speaking out of order, by Heyburn, 1766.

It is impossible to move the previous question while somebody is on the floor, by Jaspan, 2081.

Minority Members are entitled to quiet and respect when addressing the House, by Cohen, 686.

Name of Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, was not heard in roll call on vote for President Pro Tempore of Senate, by T. B. Wilson, 6.

No member of the Senate has suggested a roll call, by Coleman, 1995.

No one can vote after a roll has been verified, by Barr, 3164.

Personal Privilege having been granted a person to address a body, objection cannot be raised until that person has stated his question of personal privilege, by Dent, 1491, 1492.

Presentation of a motion prior to the roll call is correct, by Barr, 4.

Provisions of the Constitution cannot be set aside by resolution, by Woodring, 2003.

Second-reading vote is taken by acclamation, and there is no roll call, therefore the question as to how anyone voted on second reading of a bill, is out of order, unless there was a roll call recorded, by Shapiro, 274.

Senate Bill No. 305, concerning Cities of First Class permanent personal registration, has not been read three times; has not been read at length, by Barr, 2066.

Points of order raised by, on

A bill cannot be recommitted, when copies of the same are not on the Senators' desks, 3149. Withdrawn, 3149.

SHAPIRO, HARRY—Continued.

A motion to lay on the table always takes precedence, therefore there is no need of an amendment to accomplish this objective, 1429.

According to the rules, an appeal from a decision of the Chair must be in writing, and since there was no appeal in writing before the Senate, there is no appeal, and there is no necessity for withdrawing it, 1767.

As there is nothing before the Senate, the gentlemen making addresses are out of order, 1769.

House Bill No. 133 repealing Act, 1929, authorizing judges of certain courts in counties of third class to employ certain personnel to facilitate business of the courts, should be dropped from the calendar, as the subject matter of this bill is covered in Senate Bill No. 80, which was twice defeated under decisions of the Senate, and such a bill may not be acted upon by the Senate again, 3576.

Second-reading vote is taken by acclamation, and there is no roll call, therefore the question as to how anyone voted on second reading of a bill, is out of order, unless there was a roll call recorded, 274.

Senators do not have the right to change their votes, except upon having voted under a misapprehension, 1057.

The bill before the Senate cannot be acted upon, as it is improperly on the Calendar, because a bill containing the same subject matter as this bill has alrady been voted on twice. 3775.

The gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. G. H. Watkins, is entitled to be heard, as the privilege of answering is desired, 3159.

The request that a bill go over is out of order, because the bill is not on the Senators' desks, and no action can be taken, 3522.

There is noting before the Senate, except a decision on the point of order before the Senate, which takes precedence, 1057.

Questions of Information raised by, on

How to attend four committee meetings simultaneously, 2521.
